ELECTION RESULT
BOON TO BUSINESS

Leaders in Industry and Finance Regard Coolidge Victory as the Necessary Stimulus for Bigger Trade

MARKET REFLECTS BIG VICTORY

Bankers, corporation heads and leaders in the business and financial world see, in the overwhelming majority given President Coolidge in Tuesday's election, convincing evidence of a cleared political atmosphere and the necessary stimulus to a waiting industrial world.

The crushing rebuke dealt Senator La Follette and the policies he sponsored was looked upon as showing that the country opposes government ownership of railroads and similar nostrums.

Next in importance was the assurance the administration will have control of both branches of Congress, eliminating legislative meddling and permitting carrying out of administration policies.

Securities market reflected this improved sentiment with rising prices on a tremendous volume of trading.

Opinions expressed by leading industrialists, financiers and railroad executives were unanimous in their approval of the election results.

GARY'S REMARKS

"The election of Mr. Coolidge by an unusually large majority has furnished reason for a world-wide feeling of gratitude to a wise and merciful Providence that rules the destinies of humankind," said Elbert H. Gary, chairman of U. S. Steel.

Asked his opinion of the effect on business conditions Judge Gary said: "We have turned the corner. I look for great future business prosperity. If it does not appear it will not be for lack of conditions and opportunities."

"Mr. Coolidge has been a steadying force and a living example in this country beyond that of any single person since the time of Lincoln. He has been discreet, unselfish, calm, dignified, patient and wise. With no feeling of enmity toward those who have been harsh and sometimes cruel in their criticisms, he has pursued a consistent course of propriety and fairness and with an eye single to the

Continued on Tenth Page

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.
ELECTION RESULT
BOON TO BUSINESS

Continued from Page One

happiness, prosperity, and property of all the people, in the glory of our Country, and in the service of mankind. It is the duty of every citizen to support the government, and to cherish the Constitution.

The people of this country are not only the greatest, but also the best. They are free, just, and brave; they love their country and their Constitution; and they will defend it against all enemies. This is the true spirit of the American people, and it is the spirit which will enable us to win the war and to build a great nation.

I DISPROPORTIONAL PROSPERITY

by E. T. Huntington

The election of President Cleveland by a large majority is to be congratulated, as it is the best possible thing that could have happened. Mr. Cleveland is a great man, and he will do great things for the country. He is a man of the people, and he understands the needs of the country.

The people of this country are grateful to the President for the services he has rendered to the country. They are grateful to him for his leadership and his wisdom. They are grateful to him for his courage and his integrity.

The people of this country are grateful to the President for the services he has rendered to the country. They are grateful to him for his leadership and his wisdom. They are grateful to him for his courage and his integrity.

The people of this country are grateful to the President for the services he has rendered to the country. They are grateful to him for his leadership and his wisdom. They are grateful to him for his courage and his integrity.

The people of this country are grateful to the President for the services he has rendered to the country. They are grateful to him for his leadership and his wisdom. They are grateful to him for his courage and his integrity.

The people of this country are grateful to the President for the services he has rendered to the country. They are grateful to him for his leadership and his wisdom. They are grateful to him for his courage and his integrity.